1. Introduction

John G. Barre" introduced himself, Colm M. Granahan explained about the I.R.B, E-I-R-E, prevailing issues affecting the Community and the Community Co-Op.

2. Questions/Discussion from/amongst the attendees

Patrick asks Cole who do we send information to and Colm answered his question explaining about Thornton Hall. Mark raises the question about planning permission, Colm said the Mayo County Council have nothing to do with it.

A sovereign bank charter is being set-up exclaimed Colm M. Discussion about the homeless centre that is currently in the Dolphin Hotel and about the planning permission obtained for IPAs. Colm G. explains that we 100 members are required in the Co-Op for ratification of the Council. This goes in with the following ancient unwritten law:

100 = Your own Council

300 = Your own Courts

600 = Your own County

Attendees take note of the Mapped Territorial Area of Crossmolina.

The "Twin Trees" in Ballina and how the IPAs came in under their noses is discussed. The Twin Trees lied and said it was going to be mothers and children. There is general agreement about how protesting is pointless as once you are protesting, you are complaining about something
